Jamie Dobson, May 2016

Our Changing Shapes

“Only a crisis—actual or perceived—produces real change. When that crisis occurs, the actions that are taken depend on the ideas that are lying around. . . . Our basic function [is] to develop alternatives to existing policies, to keep them alive and available until the politically impossible”

Milton Friedman, Capitalism and Freedom, 1962

The Contradictions

1. Capital Ups and Leaves

2. Capital and Inequality

3. The Race to Zero Marginal Costs
